EXHIBIT 3

BERGER & MONTAGUE, P.C.

THE FIRM:

Berger & Montague has been engaged in the practice of complex and class action litigation from its Center City Philadelphia office for over 35 years. The firm has been recognized by courts throughout the country for its ability and experience in handling major complex litigation, particularly in the fields of securities, antitrust, mass torts, civil and human rights, and consumer litigation. In numerous precedent-setting cases, the Berger firm has played a principal or lead role. The firm has achieved the highest possible rating by its peers and opponents as reported in Martindale-Hubbell. Currently, the firm consists of 66 lawyers, approximately half of whom are engaged full-time in securities litigation; 18 paralegals; several professional investigators; and an experienced support staff.

Berger & Montague was founded in 1970 by the late David Berger to concentrate on the representation of plaintiffs in a series of antitrust class actions. David Berger pioneered the use of class actions in antitrust litigation and was instrumental in extending the use of the class action procedure to other litigation areas, including securities, employment discrimination, civil and human rights, and mass torts. The firm's complement of nationally recognized lawyers has represented both plaintiffs and defendants in these and other areas, and has recovered billions of dollars for its clients. In complex litigation, particularly in areas of class action litigation, Berger & Montague has established new law and forged the path for recovery for victims of fraud and other wrongdoing.

The firm has been involved in a series of notable cases, some of them among the most important in the last 35 years of civil litigation. For example, the firm was one of the principal counsel for plaintiffs in the Drexel Burnham Lambert/Michael Milken securities and bankruptcy litigation. Claimants in these cases recovered approximately $2 billion in the aftermath of the collapse of the junk bond market and the bankruptcy of Drexel in the late 1980's. The firm was also among the principal counsel engaged in the trial of the Exxon Valdez Oil Spill in Anchorage, Alaska, a trial resulting in a record punitive damages award of $5 billion against Exxon. Berger & Montague was lead counsel in the School Asbestos Litigation, in which a national class of secondary and elementary schools recovered in excess of $300 million to defray the costs of asbestos abatement. The case was the first mass tort property damage class action certified on a national basis.

In the area of securities litigation, the firm has represented public institutional investors - such as the retirement funds for the States of Pennsylvania, Connecticut, New Hampshire, New Jersey and Louisiana, as well as the City of Philadelphia and numerous individual investors and private institutional investors. The firm was co-lead counsel in the Melridge Securities Litigation in the Federal District Court in Oregon, in which an $88.2 million jury verdict was obtained. Berger and Montague has served as lead counsel in numerous other major class action cases, including those against Waste Management (settlement for investors of $220 million) and Rite Aid (settlements totalling $334 million), to name only two of the most notable successes.

In addition to its distinction in securities litigation, the firm has served as lead or co-lead counsel on many of the most significant civil antitrust cases over the last 30 years, including In re Corrugated Container Antitrust Litigation (recovery in excess of $366 million), the Infant Formula case (recovery of $125 million), and the Retail Drug price fixing case (settlement of more than $700 million). More recently, the firm, through its membership on the litigation Executive Committee, helped to achieve a $1.25 billion settlement with the largest Swiss banks on behalf of victims of Nazi aggression whose deposits were not returned after the Second World War. The firm has also played an instrumental role in bringing about a $4.37 billion settlement with German industry and government for the use of slave and forced labor during the Holocaust.

The National Law Journal in October, 2005 selected Berger & Montague as one of the 12 top plaintiffs' litigation firms in the U.S. based on its most recent performance and its track record of successes in the last 3-to-5 year period.

JUDICIAL PRAISE FOR BERGER & MONTAGUE ATTORNEYS

Berger & Montague's record of successful prosecution of class-actions and other complex litigation has been recognized and commended by judges and arbitrators across the country. Some remarks on the skill, efficiency, and expertise of the firm's attorneys are excerpted below.

Securities Litigation

From Judge Michael M. Baylson, of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania:

"The Court is aware of and attests to the skill and efficiency of class counsel: they have been diligent in every respect, and their briefs and arguments before the Court were of the highest quality. The firm of Berger & Montague took the lead in the Court proceedings; its attorneys were well prepared, articulate and persuasive."

Praising the work of Berger & Montague attorneys including Securities Department Chair Sherrie R. Savett and partners Carole A. Broderick and Barbara A Podell in In re CIGNA Corp. Sec. Litig., 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 51089, 17-18 (E.D. Pa. July 13, 2007)

From Judge Stewart Dalzell, of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania:

"Thanks to the nimble class counsel, this sum, which once included securities worth $149.5 million is now all cash. Seizing on an opportunity Rite Aid presented class counsel first renegotiated what had been stock consideration into Rite Aid Notes and then this year monetized those Notes. Thus, on February 11, 2003, Rite Aid redeemed those Notes from the class, which then received $145,754,922.00. The class also received $14,435,104 in interest on the Notes.

"Co-lead counsel ... here were extraordinarily deft and efficient in handling this most complex matter... they were at least eighteen months ahead of the United States Department of Justice in ferreting out the conduct that ultimately resulted in the write down of over $1.6 billion in previously reported Rite Aid earnings. In short, it would be hard to equal the skill class counsel demonstrated here.”

From Judge Clarence C. Newcomer, of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania:

“...[C]ounsel has conducted this litigation with skill, professionalism and extraordinary efficiency.”

Praising the work of Sherrie R. Savett, Securities Department Chair, and Arthur Stock, In Re: Unisys Corporation Securities Litigation, Civil Action No. 99-5333 , 2001 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 20160 *10 (E.D. Pa. Dec. 6, 2001).

From Judge Stewart Dalzell, of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania:

“As to 'the skill and efficiency of the attorneys involved,' we can only echo what we said about some of the same lawyers in U.S. Bioscience. The results here are outstanding in a litigation that was far ahead of public agencies like the Securities and Exchange Commission and the United States Department of Justice. . . . At the same time, these attorneys have, through the division of their labors, represented the class most efficiently[.]”

Praising the work of Berger & Montague attorneys including Securities Department Chair, Sherrie R. Savett, in achieving settlements of over $190 million in In re Rite Aid Inc. Securities Litigation, 146 F. Supp.2d 706, 735 (E.D. Pa. June 8, 2001).

From Judge Marvin Katz, of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania:

"Class counsel did a remarkable job in representing the class interests."

Commenting on the work of Berger & Montague attorneys Merrill G. Davidoff, Todd S. Collins and Douglas M. Risen, on the partial settlement for $111 million approved May, 2000, In Re: IKON Office Solutions Securities Litigation, 194 F.R.D. 166, 197 (E.D. Pa. 2000).

From Judge Wayne R. Andersen, of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois:

"...[Y]ou have acted the way lawyers at their best ought to act. And I have had a lot of cases...in 15 years now as a judge and I cannot recall a significant case where I felt people were better represented than they are here ... I would say this has been the best representation that I have seen."

Praising the work of Sherrie R. Savett , Carole A. Broderick, and Gary E. Cantor at a hearing in In Re: Waste Management, Inc. Securities Litigation, Civil Action No. 97-C 7709 (N.D. Ill. 1999).

From Judge Stewart Dalzell, of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania:

"The quality of lawyering on both sides, but I am going to stress now on the plaintiffs' side, simply has not been exceeded in any case, and we have had some marvelous counsel appear before us and make superb arguments, but they really don't come any better than Mrs. Savett . . . , and the arguments we had on the motion to dismiss [Mrs. Savett argued the motion], both sides were fabulous, but plaintiffs' counsel were as good as they come."

Commenting on the settlement of a securities case litigated by Sherrie R. Savett and Carole A. Broderick, In re U.S. Bioscience Securities Litigation, Civil Action No. 92-0678, hearing held April 4, 1994 (E.D. Pa. 1994).

From Judge Joseph F. Anderson, Jr., of the U.S. District Court for the District of South Carolina:

“I don’t have a problem at all approving the settlement. In light of what you’ve said today and your submission to the Court and I am familiar with the case ... it was a sharply litigated case, with good lawyers on both sides and I think it’s an ideal case for settlement. It’s the largest settlement I’ve been called upon to approve in my eight years as a judge.”

Praising the work of Sherrie R. Savett, Securities Department Chair, in achieving a $32 million settlement in In Re: Policy Management Systems Corporation, Civil Action No. 3:93-0807-17 (D.S.C. 1993).

From Judge Harry R. McCue, of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California:

“There can be no doubt that the public good was fully served by the attorneys for the plaintiffs in this case, because they invested their own time, their own money, they invested their special skills and knowledge to vindicate the rights and interests of the thousands of investors who invested their money and placed their trust in the integrity of the securities market. . . . I conclude that the achievement of plaintiffs' counsel under any of those tests was superior.”

Concerning the work of Berger & Montague in achieving a $33 million settlement in In re Oak Industries Securities Litigation, 1986 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 20942 (S.D. Cal. 1986).

From Judge John F. Keenan, of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York:

“The quality of work of plaintiffs’ counsel on this case is also demonstrated by the efficient manner of prosecution. . . . At the settlement hearing, defense counsel conceded that plaintiffs’ counsel constitute the ‘cream of the plaintiffs’ bar.’ The court cannot find fault with that characterization.”

Regarding the work of Sherrie R. Savett and Stephen A. Whinston, In re Warner Communications Securities Litigation, 618 F. Supp. 735, 749 (S.D.N.Y. 1985).

BIOGRAPHIES OF INDIVIDUAL ATTORNEYS

Set forth below are the biographies of the attorneys who principally worked on the In re Veeco Instructments, Inc. matter who are individually listed on the chart attached to the accompanying Affidavit as Exhibit 1.

Sherrie R. Savett

Investor Protection

Ms. Savett has helped establish several significant precedents. Among them is the holding (the first ever in a federal appellate court) that municipalities are subject to the anti-fraud provisions of SEC Rule 10b-5 under § 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and that municipalities that issue bonds are not acting as an arm of the state and therefore are not entitled to immunity from suit in the federal courts under the Eleventh Amendment. Sonnenfeld v. City and County of Denver, 100 F.3d 744 (10th Cir.1996).

In the U.S. Bioscience securities class action, a biotechnology case where critical discovery was needed from the federal Food and Drug Administration, the court ruled that the FDA may not automatically assert its administrative privilege to block a subpoena and may be subject to discovery depending on the facts of the case. In re U.S. Bioscience Secur. Litig., 150 F.R.D. 80 (E.D. Pa. 1993)

In the CIGNA Corp. Securities Litigation, the Court denied defendants' motion for summary judgment, holding that a plaintiff has a right to recover for losses on shares held at the time of a corrective disclosure and his gains on a stock should not offset his losses in determining legally recoverable damages. In re CIGNA Corp. Securities Litigation, 459 F. Supp. 2d 338 (E.D. Pa. 2006).

Professional Leadership

Ms. Savett is active in her profession, and is a frequent author and lecturer on prosecuting shareholder and consumer class actions. She was formerly on the board of the Philadelphia Bar Foundation.

In May 2007, Ms. Savett spoke at the conference presented by the Litigation Committee of the Dispute Resolution Section of the International Bar Association and the Section of International Law of the American Bar Association on class certification. Ms. Savett participated in a mock hearing before a United States Court on whether to certify a worldwide class action that includes large numbers of European class members.

She has lectured at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and at the Stanford Law School on prosecuting shareholder class actions. She is frequently invited to present and serve as panelist in American Bar Association, American Law Institute/American Bar Association and Practising Law Institute (PLI) conferences on securities class action litigation and the use of class actions in consumer litigation. She has been a presenter and panelist at PLI's Securities Litigation and Enforcement Institute annually since 1995. She has also spoken at major institutional investor and insurance industry conferences, and DRI -- the Voice of the Defense Bar.

She has written numerous articles on securities and complex litigation issues, including:
